INTRODUCTION

At the beginning of the time period covered by this volume there were two newspapers being published in Holton; The Holton Recorder and The Holton Signal. Both continued publication through this time.

The Soldier Clipper and The Whiting Journal continued publication in their respective cities.

The Mayetta Herald was printed during this time period, but ceased publication on January 28, 1920. The Delia News was also printed during this time period, but ceased publication on December 30, 1920.

Any newspaper printed in Hoyt during this time period struggled to survive; The Hoyt Weekly Reporter was printed at the beginning of this time period, but ceased publication on May 16, 1918. The Weekly Reporter was published from May 23, 1918 to April 29, 1920; The Hoyt Reporter from August 6, 1920 to December 30, 1920 when it ceased publication.

Much of the information included in these death notices is not included in this book; names of pallbearers, out-of-town mourners, names of those providing musical selections, ministers and the church in which the funeral was held, etc., does not appear for the sake of brevity. There also may be a photograph of the deceased included with an obituary. One should look at the original death notice for this and other information.

As noted in the previous volumes, not every death reported in these newspapers is included in this book, only those seeming to have some connection with Jackson County. A death notice could appear in different newspapers and from different sources within a paper. One principal notice is listed with excerpts from other accounts being used only when there is differing or additional information. Accolades to the deceased success as a Christian, parent or citizen have been deleted when possible, because of space considerations. Three ellipses denote the deletion of a part of a sentence and four that of a sentence or even paragraphs.

Each death notice is numbered consecutively and it is this number that appears in the index, not the page number. This is an all surname index that I hope will help the researcher identify family relationships that other wise would be hidden. The index starts on page 2296.

As with any book of this type there have been mistakes made in transferring the information from the newspapers to book form. If you believe there should be a death notice for your ancestor and it is not included, or other information is not correct, please check the original newspapers.

they resided until their decease. The family consisted of six children: John Green, who succeeded his father in the lumber business at Netawaka; Alex Green, of Norton, Kansas; Joseph Green, of Oberlin; Mrs. Sarah Williams, of Topeka; Mrs. Emma Beamer and Mrs. Laura Berridge, of Netawaka The Holton Recorder, December 30, 1920.

Netawaka. Wm. Green and wife of Ottumwa, Iowa and Joseph and Alex Green of Bogue, Kans., came to attend the funeral of their mother, Mrs. Anna Green. The Holton Signal, January 6, 1920.

T. J. Williams and daughter Emma The Whiting Journal, December 24, 1920.

11309. Supt. M. H. Read was called to Wichita last Saturday night by the death of his grandfather Mr. Coy, who died at an advanced age. Holton Recorder, December 30, 1920.

11310. Bevard. O. H., Patterson received the sad news on Christmas day of the death of his youngest sister. He left on the noon train at Whiting. The Holton Signal, December 30, 1920.

11311. The funeral of William McCune, who died yesterday at the county farm Burial will be in the Holton cemetery. The Holton Signal, December 30, 1920.

11312. Carbon. Mrs. Wm. Moore was called to Illinois Monday by the death of her aunt Mrs. Mary Wilson. Sam Low went with her. The Holton Signal, December 30, 1920.

Carbon Mrs. Mary Moore and Sam Low returned home from Galesburg, Ill. The Holton Signal, February 3, 1921.
